PRESBYTERIANS TO HOLD ANNIVERSARY

Rev. William H. Roberts, D. D., LL. D., the clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the world, will preach the sermon tomorrow morning in the seventy-fifth anniversary celebration at the Central Presbyterian Church, at Clinton and Belmont avenues. Dr. Roberts is known the world over as a great preacher and one of the most reliable authorities on church matters living. He has made a personal study of the religions of the world in almost every nation. He has spoken and presided at religious conferences in many coun-

In the evening at 7:30 the Third Church will join with the Central Church in its anniversary celebration. Rev. Robert Scott Inglis, D. D., will preach, and the choir of his church will sing with the Central Church choir. Rev. George Walton King, D. D., will preside and extend Central's greeting and welcome to the ministers, the Third Church and its choir. The session of the Central Church will serve as ushers and as a reception committee in both "The Angel's Serenade," by Braga. Mrs. Albey will sing "O Divine Redeemer," Gounod. The evening music program will be: Organ, prelude, Mr. J. H. Huntington, jr., organist and director of the Third Church choir; anthem, "The Lord Is My Rock," Wood-"The Day Is Ended" violin obligato, Miss Steiner, by Bartlett, Mrs. Eva Courter Albey; violin solo, "Adoration," Borowski, by Miss Mina Steiner; anthem, "Fear Not, O Israel," Specker, the Third Church Choir; organ, "Causonetta," Armstrong, Mr. Grenville Commoss; trio, "Blessed Trinity." Holden, Miss Louise Koehler, Mrs. H. C. Contrell, Mr. C. W. Morse; organ, march, Mr. Commoss.

Sey City, a former assistant priest at St. Columba's Church, this city, on a class of fifty-nine, the largest in the history of the institution. The history of the institution.

At 10 o'clock on Monday morning a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated, preceded by a recitation of the office for the dead. Rev. James J. Hall, rector of the Church of Our hemiah Perry Howell at the close of the addgess President dent Buttz will present the diplomas to a class of fifty-nine, the largest in the history of the institution.

The associate officer the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the history of the institution.

The associate officer of the histo

ALTERATIONS OF

the Newark Presbyterian Hospital be interred in Holy Name Cemetery. pital demand for accommodations in creed, and a competent staff of physicians will be in attendance. The most modern medical and surgical equipment will be installed.

which hopes to have the improvements completed in a few weeks, are Rev. Dr. Davis W. Lusk, president; Rev Dr. William Y. Chapman, vice-presi dent; Rev. Albert N. Stubblebine, secretary; George C. Sleeth, treasurer; Frederick Frelinghuysen, Waldo C. A. Law, A. V. Hamburg, George F. Reeve, W. B. Brewster, Martin Dennis, Frederick T. Ward and Joseph B.

Church Music

CLINTON AVENUE REFORMED has engulfed them. CHURCH: Morning-Prelude, "The Question," Wolstenholme; anthem. Waits," Garrett; offertory, contralto he will speak on "The Bread of the solo, "Jerusalem," Glover, Mrs. Staats; Mighty." postlude, march, Flagler. Evening-Prelude, "The Answer," Wolstenholme; a special memorial service at 10:30 toanthem "Still Still With Thee." Foote: offertory, tenor solo, "Blessed They," from "The Life Everlasting," Matthews, Mr. Soden; anthem, hymn 'On High the Stars Now Are Shining," Rheinberger; postlude, Allegro quasi Fantasia, Douglas.

The music in the Third Presbyterian Church tomorrow will be as follows: Morning service: "Oh, How Amiable Are Thy Works," Surette; offertory solo, Mr. Roubaud. In the evening the pastor, Dr. Robert Scott Inglis, together with the quartet and organist, will assist in the seventy-fifth anniversary service of the Central Presbyterian Church.

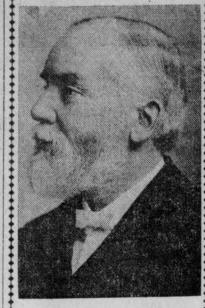

At St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. J. H. MacDonald, pastor, the music Sunday morning will be as follows: Organ prelude, Offertoire in E flat, Batiste; duet for soprano and alto, "He Careth for Us All." Scott, Mrs. Marie A. Craig and Mrs. Mina Wilson Thomas; offertory, "Allegretto," Merkel: solo for tenor, "The Publican." Vandewater, Mr. E. A. Burkhardt: postinde, Postinde in D. Merkel. Evening—Prelude, "Allegro Moderato", "Frost; trio, "Protect Us Through the Coming Night." Nevin, Mrs. Craig." Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Burkhardt: offertory, "Cantilene," Lemaigre; solo for alto, "He Shall Feed His Flock," Handel, Mrs. Mina Wilson Thomas; postlude, "Allegro Movement." Lemaigre.

Music at High Street Presbyterian Church tomorrow: Organ "Grand Choeur." MacMaster; anthem, "Arise, Shine for Thy Light is Come," Rogers; offertory, "Fear Not, O Israei," Spicker; postlude, "Easter Cantata," J. T. Bach, Evening-Organ, "Andante Grazioso," Fricker; anthem, "The Lost Chord, Sullivan; offertory, "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," Field; postlude in A, Hopkins.

Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Roberts, Anniversary Preacher.

Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts.

The morning music will be: Organ, "Prayer" ("Lohengrin"), Wagner; "Traumeri," Oesten; postlude, Capelleu. Miss Steiner, the violinist will

man, by the Third Church choir; solo, of St. Aloysius's Catholic Church, Jer-

J. Hall, rector of the Church of Our Lady of Sorrows, of South Orange, will deliver the funeral oration, and the celebrant of the mass will be the Very Rev. Monsignor John A. Stafford, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Jersey City, with Rev. Eugene Carroll, rector pices of the Young Men's Diocesan of the Church of Our Lady of Grace, Union, of Newark, in the New Audi-Hoboken, officiating as deacon and Rev. Joseph P. Meehan, rector of the day evening. The union is composed

The Right Rev. John J. O'Connor, Plans are under way for the making bishop of the Newark diocese, after of extensive alterations to the building the solemn mass of requiem will administer absolution. The remains will the Newark Presbyterian Hospital Father Sullivan was ordained a priest board, and following the necessary imates at Seton Hall Seminary May 19, 1883. provements the new institution will be He later served as assistant rector at formally opened to the public. The St. Columba's Church, this city. Prior changes have become imperative to going to St. Aloysius's Church, Jermeet the needs of the increased hos-fifteenth year of his pastorate, he had officiated as rector at St. John's Church, this city. The institution will be thrown open to all classes, irrespective of Lady of Mt. Carmel, at Ridgewood.

The members of the trustee board,

aftermath of woe, which has shocked all Christendom, will be the general pulpit theme in the local churches tomorrow.

Grave, Where Is Thy Victory?" will be exemplified in sermon and song. The services will largely partake of a memorial character. Prayers will also be offered for the grief-stricken ones, whose burden of anguish, for the time,

"The Tragedy of the Sea" will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, in the South Park "Our Soul on God With Patience Presbyterian Church. In the afternoon

Rev. Dr. W. J. Dawson has arranged morrow morning in the First Presbyterian Church for those who were lost on the Titanic.

RESIGNS AS SECRETARY OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BODY

Louis Hayes Koehler, of this city, general sceretary of the New Jersey Interment will take sunday School Association, has resigned, to accept the position of diwill be named at a session of the cenness at 70 Wickliffe street, which he tral committee to be held in New conducted to the time of his death. York city on next Tuesday. Mr. Koeh-

COLUMBUS KNIGHTS PLANNED. Chapter, No. 1, The services will be conning. ducted by Rev. Edward F. Quirk, as-sistant rector of the church and the Building and Loan Association and to the church in a body. There will be special music by the choir. The arBesides his widow who was Miss

Peach, of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church, this city. J. Smith. John Bauman, Martin Des- Mrs. Leon Schlosser, Mrs. E. W. Markmond, L. Harry Yater and P. Leo Don-

PROGRAM FOR RELIGIOUS WORK

AT CHAUTAUQUA IS ARRANGED. The program is being arranged for the religious work to be promoted in the Hall of Christ, Chautauqua, N. Y., during the coming summer. Among Jesse L. Hurlbut, of this city, district superintendent of the Newark Methodist Conference, Professor Shailer Mattews, dean of the divinity school of the University of Chicago, will head the faculty, and the other teachers, will be Professor Francis Y. Peabody, of Harvard; Bishop Willis F. McDowell, of Chicago: Rev. Dr. James A. Francis. of Boston; Rev. Dr. Allen Hoben, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. Y. A. Johnston-Ross, of Montreal.

SEMINARY PLANS CLOSING EXERCISES

The forty-fifth annual commencement exercises of Drew Theological Seminary will open with the delivery of the annual baccalaureate sermon by President Henry A. Buttz in Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, Madison, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The sessions will be continued until Thursday morning, when the graduation exercises will be held and diplomas will be

Rev. Dr. William H. Morgan, of the Central Methodist Church, this city, an alumnus of the class of 1892, will deliver the address Wednesday evening. It will be followed by the annual reception. The speaker tomorrow evening in Christ Church will be Rev. Dr. F. D. Gamewell, of China, who will make the annual missionary address.

The program will include: Monday evening, a competitive scriptural read-ing contest for the George R. Crooks prize; Tuesday evening, Rev. Dr. Wal-lace MacMullen, pastor of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, of baccalaureate address; Wednesday morning, 9 o'clock, the annual lovefeast will be held and at 10:30 the annual meeting of the Alumni Associareception to be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Diocesan Church of All Saints, Jersey City, as of clubs located in Essex, Hudson, Morris. Union and Passaic counties, and delegates will be present from several sections of the State. Charles B. McCourt, of St. Bridget's Lyceum, this city, is president of the union, and Rev. W. A. Keyes, of St. Joseph's Church, West New York, is the spiritual director. An entertaining program has been arranged, under the direction of John A. Moran, of the Bloomfield Catholic Lyceum, the chairman of the committee. A feature of the reception will be the formal preprizes won in the bowling, pool and year, making a total of 540. pinochle tournaments.

The associate officers of the union, treasurer, both of this city. The ar-The great marine disaster, with its tremendous loss of life and consequent aftermath of war which has shocked of St. Peter's A. O. S.; B. J. Owens, of St. Joseph's T. A. B. S.; W. Healey, of St. Michael's Holy Name Society; A musical and dramatic Herron, of St. Augustine's; Limpert, Bayley Lyceum; Kirsch, of the Dominicans, all of Newark, and John A. Moran, of Bloom-

Abraham Kaiser died last night at his home, 442 High street, after a brief history. The churches gave $10,785 tolast Wednesday, and despite the efforts or physicians, through which he ral-lled several times, all hope of his re-morning. The funeral will be held from his residence on Monday at 2 p. m. Interment will take place at Evergreen | Quartet.

Mr. Kaiser was born in New York

Mr. Kaiser was a Republican and ler has been identified with local and from 1902 to 1903 he served as alderman hattan. State Sabbath school work for several from the Seventh Ward. He was Since last November he has elected Assemblyman in 1904, serving made twenty addresses in various sec- one term. He was a member of Colum-Lodge, I. O. O. F.; Granite Lodge, K. of P.; Indian League, U. S. Grant Club, evening. Newark Lodge, K. of L. of Protecson and tion; Anchor Lodge, Honor: Seventh Ward Republican The annual holy hour service of New Club, and Peter Cooper Council, Jr. O. Knights U. A. M. Mr. Kaiser was also promibe held in nent in building and loan circles, hav-Joseph's Catholic Church, ing been president of the Mercantile Wallace place, tomorrow eve- Building and Loan Association, treasurer of the Sixth Ward Building and chaplain of the chapter. The mem- Pride of Newark Building and Loan rangement committee includes Charler Fannie Isenberg, Mr. Kaiser leaves one McCloskey, jr., chairman; Thomas son, Emannual, and three daughters, ens and Mrs. Isaac Gluckmann, all of High street, this city. He also leaves several grandchildren.

And that you may, profit by the health-restoring, strengthgiving properties of the timetested famous family remedy

Rev. Masheim Steck Waters, Chaplain for Sons of A. R.

New York, class 1888, will deliver the CHAPLAIN OF NEW CHAPTER PROGRESSIVE CLERGYMAN

nual meeting of the Alumni Association. Following the election of officers there will be a reunion, with a luncheon, in Mead Hall. In the evening Rev. Dr. Morgan, of this city, will deliver the alumni address, which will be followed by a reception to the faculty.

The graduation exercises will be held the alumni address, which will be followed by a reception to the faculty.

The graduation exercises will be held for Rev. John A. Sullivan, rector of St. Aloysius's Catholic Church, Jer- to the general conference in Minneau. largest of the denomination in man, by the Third Church choir; solo, of St. Aloysius's Catholic Church, Jer-to the general conference in Minneap-ir Day Is Ended" violin obligato, sey City, a former assistant priest at olis. At the close of the address Presi-city. Dr. Waters evinces pride in his

The associate officers of the new chapter are: William T. Hunt, president; Philemon L. Hoadley, vice-president; Graham B. McGregor, secretary; Benjamin J. Coe, treasurer; Rev. Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, historian, and William J. Banister, John Law-rence Boggs, Henry M. Doremus, Nehemiah Perry Howell and Edwin Allen mith, board of trustees.

rance," will be the Christian Endeavor topic tomorrow

The subject of the Rev. Dr. Dawson, of the First Presbyterian Church, tomorrow evening will be "The Sensual-

Seventy-eight members have been added to the roll of the Forest Hill sentation to the several clubs of the Presbyterian Church during the past who will assist in the reception, com- Street Presbyterian Church, will at Rutgers College. prise Frederick J. Seyfarth, of St. Co- make the address at the rally of the lumba's Club, secretary, and William Essex Endeavor Union, in the Cald-Kirsch, of the Dominican Lyceum, well Presbyterian Church (12) 6.

Holy Name Society; Henry Gebhard, and at the Church of Our Lady Help Strong." In the evening he will speak way, last evening.

ment will be given by the Young Peo-John Donogan, of St. Charles's; F. J. ple's Sosiety of the German Emanuel Seyfarth, of St. Columba's; George Presbyterian Church in the lecture-William room, Verona and Clifton avenues,

The Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts, clerk of Right Trend." the General Assembly, will occupy the pulpit of the Central Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning.

The Girls' Guild of St. Peter's German Catholic parish presented two farces, "A Finished Coquette," and "A Knot of White Ribbon" in Berkeley Hall, 516 Clinton avenue, last evening.

The Newark Presbytery has closed one of the most prosperous years in its illness. He was stricken with apoplexy ward local extension work. Other gifts made the grand total $12,158.

A spring musicale was given in the was despaired of yesterday Fifth Baptist Church last evening. The soloists included F. C. Biggen, tenor; E. A. Mueller, jr., pianist; Ralph Saurchio, violinist; Miss Marion A. Blake-Rabbi Solomon Foster will officiate man, elocutionist, and the Aurum

John Hopper, former organist of St. rector of religious education in the city in 1852 and was brought to this Andrew's Episcopal Church, after May First Baptist Church Sunday school city a year later by his parents. In 1883 1, will assume his new duties as orat New Haven, Conn. His successor he entered the compressed yeast busi- ganist and choirmaster of the St. Stephen's Church. He will succeed George R. Bangs, who goes to the Church of the Beloved Disciples, Man-

A reception and supper will be given under the auspices of the Men's Club | Sealy is chairman of the committee. tions of New Jersey and has attended bia Lodge, F. and A. M.; Teutonia of the Elizabeth Avenue Presbyterian Church in the clubrooms next Friday John Squire, William Johnson and W. H. Bloomer will assist in of the arrangements.

> The Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Villers, of the Peddie Memorial Baptist Church. before the members of Damascus Com mandery, Knights Templar, May 16, in the Peddie Church.

chaplain of the chapter. The members and guests will assemble in the parochial school hall and will proceed meeting of the Sixth Ward association parochial school hall and will proceed meeting of the Sixth Ward association per meeting of th of Veterans' Day exercises at the Sol-

> "The Power of the Potter" will be the topic of the Rev. Harold C. Harmon, of the West Presbyterian Church, at the men's meeting in the local Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon. C. Henry Earle, tenor, will sing and the Y. M. C. A. Orchestra, led by Frederick A. Earle,

An attractive program will feature the seventh annual entertainment and reception of the Men's Club of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, to be given in the parish house, Tuesday evening. William J. Faber is chairman of the arrangement committee. Those who will assist at the reception include B. W. Terlinde, C. E. Estabrok, George Linnett, Harry G. Shaw, A. W. Chambers, C. Fred Bostock, E. L. Meeker, A. R. Quelch, Frank H. Cook and James N. Jose.

In the North Reformed Church to morrow the pulpit will be occupied in the sevening. The pastor was refused to the charge for the third year morrow the pulpit will be occupied in the seventh of the Diocesan Federation of the Science Martine William Lenny workers from out of the Science of Chirch Chiral and workers to the redeemed. This is the place for Christian Endeavor (S. J. Robert Cartin Clurk, chiral street of the Science Martine Working the Fight of Faith, Sunder, Piphting the Fight of Faith, Sunder, An attractive program will feature the

"Here, smoke some real tobacco that can't bite your tongue!"

Here's tobacco that's got "the goods" sign plastered all over it. You never smoked such bully tobacco, because there never was tobacco like it-and can't be for manyyears because it is made by a patented process.

You cut away from notions that you can't smoke a pipe. You can—and you'll enjoy every puff—"P. A." won't bite your tongue. The sting has

PRINGE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

makes a royal cigarette. If you roll them yourself, it's good for what ails you to switch from the dust brands that burn up like powder—and go at "P. A." For here's freshness and sweetness-and long-burning, too! You'll never know what a "home-rolled" cigarette ought to be until you smoke "P. A."

> Buy Prince Albert anywhere, everywhere-in 5c cloth bags (handy for cigarette making); in 10c tidy red tins and pound and half-pound humidors.

Tomorrow marks the beginning of on "An Appeal to the Heroic," with reference to the recent Titanic dis-Ernest G. Randal, superintendent of afternoon. His subject will be "The solo.

lecture on "Miracles That Follow Eas- | Mich., under the auspices of the Inter-

The music at the evening service will include "The Conversion of Paul." from Mendelssohn's Oratorio; "St. Paul," "Evening Song," Lysberg; tonor solo and chorus, and "Rise, My Soul," sacred part song by James Barnby.

The pulpit of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church will be occupied tomorrow morning by Professor N. A. Honline, of Dayton, O., a prominent leader in the Men and Religion Forward Movement.

At the Temple Oheh Shalom last evening, Rabbi Charles I. Hoffman, discoursed on "Human Limitations; Lessons of the Titanic Disaster." He depicted the uncertainty of life, despite the remarkable ingenuity of man to combat nature's forces.

known to churchmen in this city, has resigned the pastorale of the Hamilton Grange Reformed Church, New York, to accept a call to the pulpit of parlors on next Thursday evening.

Rev. John J. Moment, of the High tessor of Christian evidences on ethics Conference. Six hundred attended the

A musical entertainment and recep the Rev. John McDowell's eighth year as pastor of the Park Presbyterian friends of the G. J. Schilling Bible rangement committee consists of Joseph Moss, of the Catholic Institute; be observed in St. Bridget's and St. James Mooney, of St. Rose of Lima Charles's Catholic churches, this city.

Tomorrow forty hours' devotion will Church. In the morning Mr. McDowell class of the Summerfield Methodist will preach a special anniversary sergic mon on "What Makes a Church at Summer avenue and Heller park-Church. In the morning Mr. McDowell class of the Summerfield Methodist

Local alumni of Stevens Institute will attend the farewell concert of the Stevens Musical Club, which will be given in the First Methodist Church, the Clement French Industrial Home, Hoboken, on Tuesday evening. Ferwill speak to the Vance class of the nando Falla, class '14, of Guatemala, North Reformed Church tomorrow Central America, will render a flute

A free Bible lecture on "Death" will Tomorrow evening in the Peddie be given in Masonic Hall, Arcade build-Memorial Church Dr. Thomas J. Vil- ing, 651 Broad street, tomorrow at 3 p. lers will give his second illustrated m. by G. B. Raymond, of Detroit, national Bible Students' Association.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

BAPTIST. FAIRMOUNT BAPTIST CHURCH, Fairmount avenue near Bank street—Rev. George E. Lombard, pastor. Preaching 10:30 a. m., "The Earnestness of Jesus." 7:45 p. m., "Lessons From the Great Marine Disaster." Sunday school 2.30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. 7:45. All welcome. Seats free.

SOUTH BAPTIST CHURCH, East Kinney street, near Broad—Rev. Clark T. Brownell, pastor. Morning worship 10:30; anniversary sermon by pastor on "The Influence of a Church." Evening service 7:45; subject, "The Master of the Deep." Sunday school 2:30. Young people's meeting 6:45. Midweek service, Thursday, 7:45. All invited. EPISCOPAL.

Sf. STEPHEN'S PROTESTANT EPISCO-PAL CHURCH, Clinton and Elizabeth avenues—Rev. E. A. Wasson, pastor. Services 8 a. m., 10:45 a. m., 7:45 p. m. Sunday school 2 p. m.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL The members of St. Bridget's Holy Name Society have matured plans for an entertainment and reception to be held in the Krueger Auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 30. James Sealy is chairman of the committee.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

CENTENARY METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

CHURCH, Summer avenue and Kearny street alignon'' fame, will speak at 10.30 a. m. The pastor, Rev. George G. Vogel, D. D., will peak at night on a theme of great interest, "The Basis on Which All Christians Can Unite." The best of music. Seats always free and filled. Welcome.

FRANKLIN STREET METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, opposite the City Hall Annex—William Eakins, pastor, 10:30 a. m., "The Pearl of Days." 7.45 p. m., "Does II Pay to Be Good?" 2:30 p. m., Sabbath school. 6:45 p. m., vesper service, 9:30 a. m., prayer-meeting.

York, to accept a call to the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in a Kentucky town.

A social and whist party was held under the auspices of the Children of Mary of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel last evening in the parish hall in Summer avenue.

According to figures compiled by Rev. Dr. Davis W. Lusk, superintendent of the extension committee of the Newark Presbytery, this city has 100,—

The Robert Republic Methodist Episcopal Church, the morning the pastor will preach on "The Law of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of Babel." Young Men's Union in the chapel at 3:15. Sanday school session at 2:30 o'clock.

ST. PAUL'S METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Broad and Marshall streets—Rev. Tames H. MacDonald, pastor. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Law of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of Babel." Young Men's Union in the chapel at 3:15. Sanday school session at 2:30 o'clock.

ST. PAUL'S METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Broad and Marshall streets—Rev. Tames H. MacDonald, pastor. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Law of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of Babel." Young Men's Union in the chapel at 3:15. Sanday school session at 2:30 o'clock.

ST. PAUL'S METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Broad and Marshall streets—Rev. Tames H. MacDonald, pastor. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Law of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of Babel." Young Men's Union in the chapel at 3:15. Sanday school 7 to "The Tower of Babel." Young Men's Union in the chapel at 3:15. Sanday school 7 to "The Law of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of the Way and the Cost of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of the Way." In the evening his topic will be "The Tower of the Way." In the evening his top

Newark Presbytery, this city has 100,000 church-going Catholics, 90,000 Protestants, 50,000 Jews and 110,000 who are mostly churchless.

Rev. Dr. Gilbert C. Moulsdale, a recent appointee of the Newark conference to the First Methodist Church, at Roselle, and Mrs. Moulsdale will be tendered a reception in the church parlors on next Thursday evening.

METHODIST PROTESTANT.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

PRESBYTERIAN. PRESBYTERIAN.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,
Clinton and Belmont avenues—10:45, Dr. W.
H. Roberts, clerk of the General Assembly, preaches, 2:30, Sunday school, 6:45, Endeavor, 7:46, Third and Central Church service, Dr. Inglis preaches, Third and Central Church choirs sing. Seats free, Hearty welcome for everybody.

SOUTH PARK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, corner of Clinton avenue and Broad streetRev. Lyman Whitney Allen, D. D., pastor; Rev. W. Douglass Buchanan, assistant pastor, 10:45 a. m., congregational worship; sermon
by Dr. Allen; subject "The Version of Control of Contr

"Into All the World."

THE OLD FIRST PRESHYTERIAN CHURCH, Broad street, near Market—Strangers are heartly welcomed. Dr. W. J. Dawson, pastor, has arranged a special memorial service at 10:30 a.m. for those who perished on the Titantic. In the evening at 7:45 o'clock he will deliver the third of the four popular addresses during the Sunday evenings of April. His subject will be "The Sensualist." Gospel hymns, printed especially for this occasion, will be song by the congregation. All departments of the Sunday school at 2:30. The men's union Bible class at 2:30. Mr. H. A. Cozzens, leader; the topic will be "Is the World Growing Better or Worse?" The adult Bible class at 4, Mr. J. P. Dusenberry, teacher. Christian Endeavor at 6:45, Meeting for prayer and praise Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock; Dr. Dawson will deliver the address. THE THIRD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Broad street, opposite the City Hall-Robert Scott Inglis, minister, Services: Morning, 10:30; evening, 7:45. Sabbath school 2:30 p. m. Frayer-meeting Theorem. in. Frayer-meeting, Tucsday, 7.45 p. m. A cordial invitation extended to all these services. Subjects for tomorrow's sermons: Morning: "In the Hollow of His Hand, Faith or Fate?" a memorial service for the victims of the sea. Evening, "Christian Social Service of the City." by A. W. McDougall; illustrated by sixty stereopticon views. Violin music.

REFORMED.
CLINTON AVENUE REFORMED CHURCH,
Clinton avenue and Halsey street—Rev. Albertus T. Broek, minister, Morning worship at 10.30; topic, "Divine Compassion." Evening worship at 7.45; topic, "Heroes of the Sea." Bible school at 2:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor vespers at 7. Strangers are cordially invited.

dially invited.

NORTH REFORMED CHURCH, Broad and Bridge streets—Rev. Lucas Boeve, assistant minister in charge. Morning worship 10:30 o'clock. Evening worship 7.45 o'clock. Chreining Sunday school 9:30 o'clock. Afternoon Sunday school 9:30 o'clock. Afternoon Sunday school 2:45 o'clock. East Newark and Italian Missions at 2:30 o'clock. Christian Endeavor Society at 6:45 o'clock. The Rev. George H. Payson, D. D., of New Brunswick, will preach both morning and evening.

UNIVERSALIST.

Rev. Henry R. Rose, Minister. CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER, diagonally opposite City Hall—Mr. Rose begins a series of sermons Sunday morning at 11 on "The Warnings We Meet Every Day." Topic tomorrow, "Pay As You Enter." Religious school at 10. Illustrated lecture at 7:45, by Edward Avis on "The Birds We Love." Violin and vocal imitations of American song birds, Come.

MISCELLANEOUS.

CHILDREN'S TEMPLE (undenominational)
Nichols street, near Pacific street—Children' en Commandment class Sunday evening clock. Little beople church service 7:30 p
5. Mrs. W. R. Anthony will be the speaker
riday evening meeting S o'clock for adults hildren from 6 years and upward are heartifelcome Sunday evening. ASSOCIATION AL BIBLE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION Masonic Hail, Arcade, 651 Broad street—Tomorrow, 3 p. m., G. B. Raymond, of Detroit, Mich., will speak; topic, "Death," You are cordially invited to attend and hear this able Bible scholar. Special morning service at 10:30 o'clock, at which Mr. Raymond will also speak. All welcome. No collections.

collections.

RESCUE HOME, 15 Spring street—Sunday services 3:45 and 7:45, will be in charge of Sister George A. Simmons, Brothers Pamateer, Lenny, Bennett, Ben Richards, Jones, Dickens and various other workers from out of the city Special singing, Hallelujah testimonies by the redeemed. This is the place for Christian workers to uplift failen humanity. Everybody most cordially invited to take part. Mis. Miller, organist; William Lenny, musical director.